

Professional Learning Pathways: Quick Start Virtual Sessions

Improve educators' effectiveness and increase student achievement by partnering with Catapult Learning to support continual professional development. Catapult Learning proposes the following professional development workshops series, or any combination of, for Back-to-School and Mid-Year Professional Development. Our PD and Coaching provide teachers and leaders with flexible opportunities and powerful tools for growth.

New Teacher Pathway

Effective Classroom Management

Spaces Organized for Learning

Fostering a Growth Mindset

Crafting Lesson Objectives

Marzano's High Yield Instructional Strategies

Interactive & Engaging Teaching Strategies

Formative Assessment & Adjusting Instruction

Differentiation to Enhance Learning

Social Emotional Learning Pathway

Introduction to Social-Emotional Learning

Trauma-Informed Educational Practices

Assessing, Modeling & Teaching Social-Emotional Skill Building

Cultural Competence

Special Populations Pathway

Creating Positive Classroom Culture for Students with Intensive Needs

Identifying & Understanding the Needs of Students with Intensive Social-Emotional & Behavioral Challenges

The Differentiated Classroom: Learning Environment

Introduction to Intensive Behavioral Interventions: Functional Behavioral Assessment and Behavioral

Modeling and Teaching Social-Emotional Skill Building for Students with Significant Behavior Support Needs

Intervention Planning & MTSS

To get more information on our pathways and customized professional development, please reach out on email and we will schedule time with our team during PD Office Hours.

Kim Hinson

Senior Director of School Partnerships

kimberly.hinson@catapultlearning.com

Katie Gentry-Funk

Director of School Partnerships

katie.gentry-funk@sischools.com