Equipping You to Support the Whole Child With Professional Development Pathways

FOCUS ON EQUITY

All students deserve an equal opportunity to succeed in a positive, inclusive learning environment. That's why it is incumbent upon schools to strive for equity in all aspects of education and school relationships.

Catapult Learning offers instructional support at all levels – for students, educators, and administrators, and all staff. Our engaging workshop content paired with job-embedded coaching supports continual professional growth in equity, cultural proficiency, and social-emotional learning.

Partner Spotlight: Dr. Edward Fergus

Advancing Equity

Catapult Learning and Edward Fergus, Ph.D., nationally recognized author of Solving Disproportionality and Achieving Equity, have partnered to advance equity within classrooms and districts.

Helping Educators Implement Change

Dr. Fergus is professor at Rutgers University and former associate professor and applied researcher at Temple University, whose work explores the effects of educational policy and practice as it intersects the lives of populations living in vulnerable conditions. In addition, his work outlines policy and practice changes for schools to develop as protective environments for vulnerable populations.

Offering Expertise to Schools and Districts

Dr. Fergus is available to schools and districts that engage with Catapult Learning for professional development solutions. His keynotes in equity literacy include:

- Unpacking Bias-Based Beliefs
- Practicing an Equity Belief Lens
- ...and more!

Catapult Learning delivers what schools need to realize positive teacher and student outcomes. Through engaging workshops and high-impact coaching, we can work with your administrators to:

Identify strengths and gaps related to equity

Help determine the best support for students and their families, staff, and the community

Assess your policies and practices

Examine how your school's culture can shift to develop key competencies for students and staff

Implement new equitable approaches and practices

Provide ongoing support with individualized coaching
