A TEACHER WHO INSPIRED ME WAS...

Mrs. Davis was my public speaking teaching teacher in high school. She inspired me because she pushed me to do more and to do better, even when I felt like what I was doing already was not good enough. When I saw how well received my project was, I was forever changed. I won a gold medal for district, regionals, and nationals competitions two years in a row! Once my confidence improved, I became somewhat fearless.
